Congratulations to Marcia Davis...and to FDA!

The Alabama Independent School Association (AISA) announced today that Fort Dale Academy's Marcia Davis, has been selected as AISA Secondary Teacher of the Year. This is a tremendous honor as there are literally hundreds and hundreds of teachers in the state that teach in AISA Schools. We are very pleased that one of "our own" has been recognized for her hard work and dedication. This is the second year in a row that Fort Dale Academy has had the winner in the Secondary Division. Starla Jones was the winner last year. The other current FDA teacher to have won the award is Pat Skipper, who won in 1998.
