

Fort Dale Academy Newsletter September 18, 2009

-Due to conditions on the practice field, there will be no parking on the field level at the Fort Dale vs. Hooper game tonight. If you have special parking needs, please contact the office at Fort Dale Academy (382-2606) as soon as possible.

-Fort Dale's football team is undefeated.....three for three!! If you want to see a really fine football team, plan to come out tonight to see our FDA Eagles! It is a treat to watch our GREAT team! Game time is 7:00 P.M. at Boan Field, here on the Fort Dale Academy campus. Hope to see you there!

-The Book Fair began today in the FDA Library. As everyone knows, there are wonderful book selections included in the sale. If you or your child is interested in buying something from the Book Fair, please remember to send money next week.

-Extra yearbooks are on sale for $35.00. Please contact Mrs. Skipper in the computer lab to make these purchases. They will be available through Thursday, September 24th.

-Have you bought gift wrap yet? The last day to turn in gift wrap orders will be Friday, September 25th.

-Fort Dale Academy hosted a College Day today at 1:00 in the gym. Be sure to ask your 10th-12th grade students about what they saw!

-If you are interested in scholarships or college information, please be sure to check out the Notes from the Guidance Office on the Fort Dale Academy website. There is information about applications, visitation days, and college fairs in our area. Mrs. Janet Brantley, our Guidance Counselor, is available to help with information and guidance as our seniors make plans for next year.

-Remember that October 9th-10th is Fort Dale Academy's big 40th Reunion- Homecoming Celebration. Please contact Sue Arnold at 301-7514 or email her at fdareunion@camelliacom.com. You may also contact Jean Katz at jkatz@fortdale.com. Make plans to be here...you won't want to miss the fun!

-FYI-Fort Dale Academy 40th Reunion T-shirts are available at Championship Trophy in Greenville. The sale is over at the school, but these commemorative shirts can still be ordered.
