

Fort Dale Academy Newsletter

September 11, 2009

-Last Friday night proved to be another wonderful night for the Fort Dale Academy Football Team. The big win over Glenwood here at FDA makes the season two for two! Tonight the FDA Eagles travel to Pike. Make plans to follow the team to Troy! Game time is at 7:00.

-The annual JV and Varsity Cheerleader Poinsettia Sale will begin September 14th and will continue until September 25th. The plants are always beautiful, and come in many colors. See a Fort Dale Academy Cheerleader to make your orders!

-Fort Dale Academy Librarian, Mrs. Audrey Ryan, announced today that the Book Fair will be from September 18th-September 25th. Volunteers are needed to help run the fair. Please contact Mrs. Ryan if you can help. Remember that this counts as work hours!

-If anyone has a 1981 or 1988 Fort Dale Academy Yearbook that they would like to sell, please contact Mrs. Susan Foster. smfoster@fortdale.com

-The SGA is selling Homecoming T-Shirts. The shirts will be on sale until September 17. The cost is $12.00 each, and only adult sizes are available. The SGA is also selling T-shirts for the newly organized Pep Squad, which includes classes 7-12. See any SGA member to purchase either of these shirts.

-Remember to spread the news that on October 9th, Fort Dale Academy will celebrate its 40th Anniversary! Fort Dale Academy would like to know about any reunions being planned. Several exciting events are being planned for opportunities for classes to get together. On Saturday night there will be a 40th Anniversary Dinner and Dance featuring Chevy 6 at the Fairgrounds. Please contact Sue Arnold at fdareunion@camelliacom.com or at 334-301-7514, or you may contact Jean Katz at jkatz@fortdale.com

-FDA 40th Anniversary car magnets are for sale in the FDA office. Two for $5.00 or one for $3.00. Show your school pride...purchase one today!

-If you would like to purchase a magazine from a member of the FDA Junior Class, please take note that Monday will be the last day of the sale.

-The Yearbooks are here! Mrs. Skipper and the entire Yearbook Staff hope that you enjoy all the memories!
