Dear Parents of 7th-12th Grade Students:

In addition to the required summer reading, some of the English teachers have development study questions and guidelines for your student to use as the book is read. These worksheets are designed to help your student gain more insight into the meaning of the book. Also, working through these questions will allow your student to be better prepared for the first book grade scheduled in the fall. These guides were handed out to the students during the final week of classes. Extra copies maybe picked up in the office.

The summer reading list for grades 7-12 is:
